

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lloyd D. Vollmer was born at Kadoka, South Dakota, on June 5, 1950, to Jake and Annie Vollmer, one of their seven children; and,

Whereas, Lloyd graduated from Kennebec High School in 1969, and attended The University of South Dakota, graduating in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting; and,

Whereas, Lloyd began his career with the state of South Dakota on February 6, 1978, as an Accountant I for the Department of Public Safety, and became a senior accountant for the Department of Commerce and Regulation in 1987; and,

Whereas, Lloyd's aptitude, dedication, and integrity have distinguished his career of 31 years with the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Lloyd is a devoted father who raised his daughter, Melissa Vollmer, to be an intelligent, independent, successful young woman, and gave freely of his time and talent to help kids in the community by coaching both youth bowling and girl's softball; and,

Whereas, Lloyd's family, friends, and colleagues join together in congratulating him on a successful career and a well-deserved retirement; and,

Whereas, Lloyd D. Vollmer will retire April 8, 2009, giving him time to fish, travel, and spend time with family and friends:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 2009, as, in South Dakota, and I join his family, colleagues, and friends in wishing him good health and happiness.

LLOYD VOLLMER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
